

the role of employment status in the IR35 rules changes & practical solutions

– a webinar

Wednesday 27th January 2021

12:00 – 13:00

With the 6th of April 2021 fast approaching, many hirers, intermediaries and off-payroll workers have begun their preparations for the proposed off-payroll working (IR35) rules. Whether you are at the beginning stages of your planning or are ready to find a compliant solution, our latest webinar will provide guidance and support.

Top 100 law firm JMW and workforce management specialists giant group will share real-life examples and practical solutions as well as provide information on the following areas:

- the importance of different employment rights
- how the new rules impact employment status
- how might the Taylor Report | Good Work Plan apply?
- definition of PEO and the employment law challenges
- practical payroll options

your speakers for the event are:

- David Hopkins, Workforce Management Consultant, giant group (chair)
- Daniel Haslam, Group Sales Director, giant group
- Simon Bloch, Partner, JMW solicitors
